The Times on French Refugee Meetlogs. LONDON, May 13.—The Times this morning has an energetic article on ct of the proposed meeting at Hyde Park, Sunday next, of sympa-thy with the exiled Frenchmen now resident in this city. It urges the authorities to discountenance and dis-perse such demonstrations on the sabbath, as are likely to lead to riot and disorder, and concludes by urg-ing the government to forbid Gustave Flourens and his fellow refugees from indulging their fondness for such displays as are only likely to lead to turbulent gatherings, whose actions giebe. would only bring humiliation upon the authorities. It also counsels these gents to abandon their projects.
